News and Events

St Vincent de Paul Society

Our Conference will meet on Monday evening, 24th July, at 8pm in the Parish Hall.

Red Boxes

Please bring your Red Box to Mass any time during July so that it can be emptied. Many boxes will have some old pound coins inside, so it would be especially good to get those to the bank this time round. Leave your box at the back of the church, please, and make sure your name is on it.

Many thanks, Ann Clinton, Local Secretary APF

Looking for some holiday reading?

Please check out the books available for loan in the cloister. The books are spiritual reading, apologetics and other Catholic works. Any such books no longer needed by parishioners would be greatly appreciated for addition to those already available.

The Sick in Hospital

Should you or any family member be admitted to hospital please bear in mind that the Catholic Chaplaincy will not automatically be informed of your/their presence in the hospital. It is up to you personally to contact the hospital chaplaincy so that you may get a visit and have the opportunity of receiving Holy Communion whilst you are there. The Catholic Chaplaincy at Addenbrooke's can be contacted on 01223 217769. More information can be found on the
